

WCCAN Meeting

August 13, 2013

Outcomes

- 1) Identify role of WCCAN network meetings going forward
- 2) Discuss benefits to WCCAN membership
- 3) Clarify role of the Backbone organization
- 4) Identify priority work areas and partnership opportunities for “Getting Ready for College Conference 2013”

Welcome

- Name
- Organization
- Share how your organization helps kids access college

Network Meeting Structure

- Ed Fund reflections on Y1
 - Role as facilitator
 - Purpose of meetings
- How can we make network meetings more engaging?
- What should be the role of WCCAN network meetings going forward?
- How to strengthen Member's connectivity to students, network members, schools, district?

What's Your Vision?

- How could we structure network meetings that would be more engaging for members?
- Are there professional development topics that would build the capacity of the network?
- Would you like to find out more about each other's organizations?
- What are the hot topics that we are not discussing?

WCCAN Membership

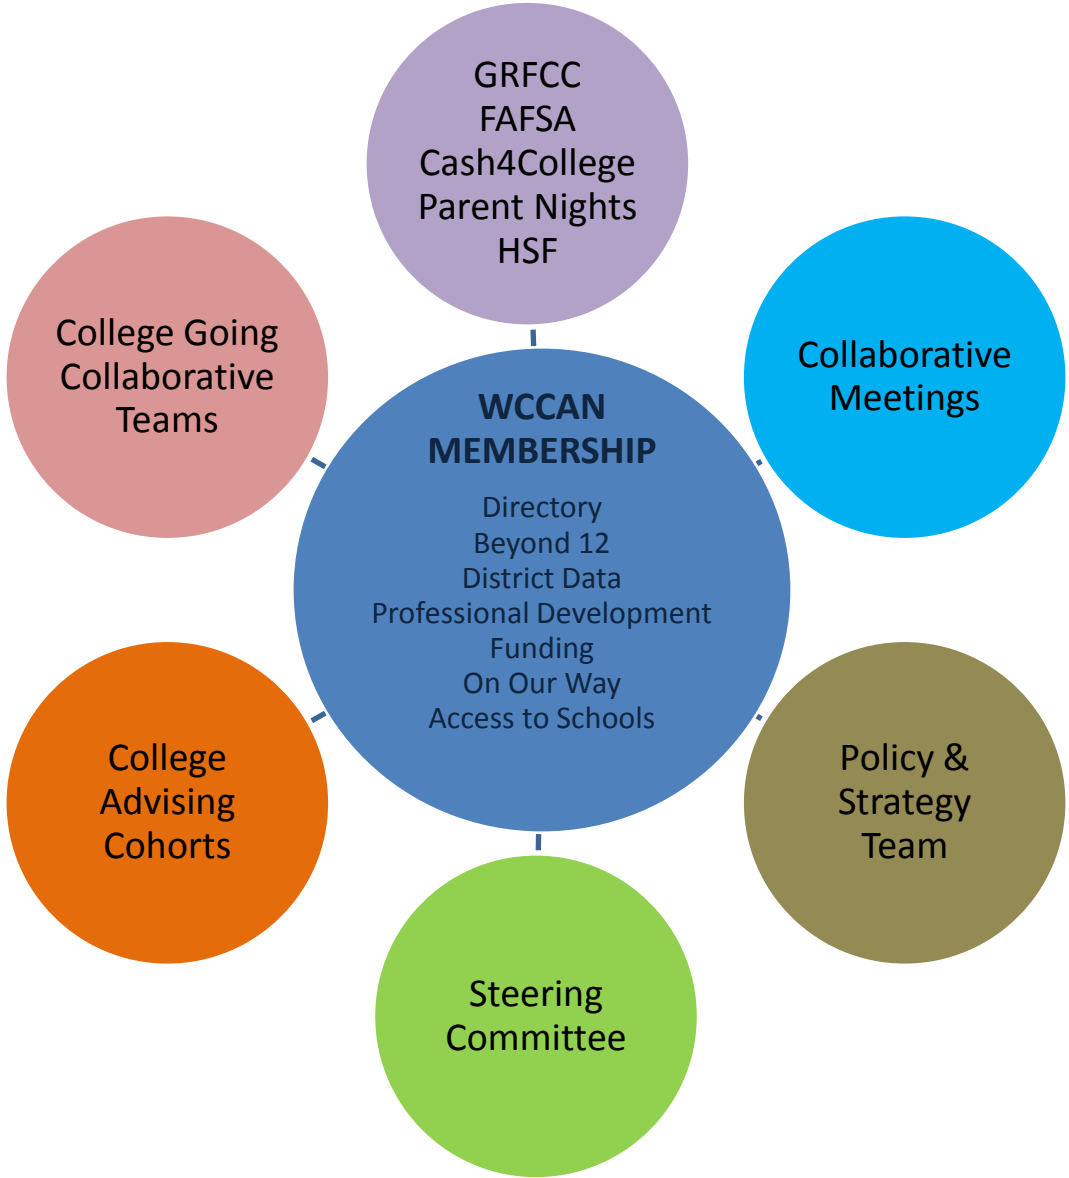

Membership Benefits:

- Directory
- Beyond 12
- District Data
- Funding
- Networking
- Professional Development
- Access to district school sites
- On Our Way

How could we grow our membership?

Collaborative Opportunities

Forward Together

- How can we strengthen our network in 2013-2014?
 - Lessons from MarinCAN, Bay Area CSN
 - Being intentional about collaborative work
 - Accomplishments to date
 - National models/branding
 - Building a strong Backbone organization is key to collaborative success

Getting Ready for College Conference

- When: Saturday, September 28th
- Time: 9:00- 1:00
- Location: Contra Costa College
- Who: 11th & 12th Grade Students & Families
- What:
 - College Panel
 - Personal Statements; Writer Coach Connection
 - SAT Overview/Sign Ups
 - College Application Process
 - Parent Presentation (English/Spanish)

Next Meeting

- Review outcomes for today's meeting
- Networking activity
- Debrief: On Our Way
- Conference update
- WCCUSD Strategic Plan
 - WCCAN Objective 1.1!
- Membership